Re: Power Integrations, Inc. v. Fairchild Semiconductor International, Inc., et al.,
C.A. No. 04-1371-JJF

---

Dear Debbie:

I am writing as a follow-up to our telephone conversation of Friday afternoon concerning defendants' motion to compel production of documents of Dr. Klas Eklund for forensic testing (D.I. 496), which we noticed to be heard on the Court's July 13, 2007 motions calendar.

You indicated that non-dispositive motions are stricken from the argument calendar when insufficient time remains for briefing pursuant to the local rules to be completed five days prior to the noticed motion date, and that although the Court is willing to leave a motion on the calendar that otherwise lacks sufficient time if the parties intend to shorten their time for briefing in order to comply with the deadline, you have no way of knowing of that intention upon the filing of such a motion unless the moving party sends you an explanatory letter. You asked that I docket such a letter in connection with this motion.

Plaintiff has offered to submit its answering papers on this motion ahead of schedule, by Thursday June 28, 2007, and defendants will submit their reply within two days of receipt of plaintiff's answering papers. Briefing on this motion therefore should be completed by Monday July 2, 2007.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Steven J. Balick
